

High-Risk Transaction Escalation Policy

Version 3.0

Effective Date: February 2026

1. Definition of High-Risk Transactions

A transaction is considered high-risk if:

- Fraud score exceeds 0.80
- Originates from a sanctioned or embargoed country
- Occurs during abnormal customer hours

2. Escalation Levels

Level 1: Automated review

Level 2: Analyst review within 10 minutes

Level 3: Immediate escalation to Fraud Operations Manager

3. Required Documentation

Analysts must document:

- Reason for escalation
- Evidence reviewed
- Final decision and justification

4. Customer Notification

Customers must be notified within 24 hours if a transaction is declined due to fraud risk.

End of Document.